Kid Mutiny

June 13 - July 13
curated by Ellen Tani
curatorial project mentor: J.W Mahoney

Kid Mutiny goes out with a bang!

Come by DC Arts Center this Sunday for a film screening, artist talk and closing reception for the exhibition Kid Mutiny.

Toy Punks Film screening: 5:30pm, July 13

A collaboration between vinyl toy enthusiasts Justin Kovalsky and Chris Nelson, *Toy Punks*explores the intersections between Japanese toys, fashion and punk rock. The film features interviews with vinyl toymakers Frank Kozik, Hikaru Iwanaga of Bounty Hunter, Hiddy of Secret Base and Balzac, along with other key figures from the American and Japanese designer toy scenes.

Artist Talk: 7:00pm, July 13

The film screening will be followed by an artist talk with curator Ellen Tani and artists Peter Chang, Brandon Hill, Debbie Yarrington, Andrew Wodzianski and Steven Strawn.

The District of Columbia Arts Center is a nonprofit arts space dedicated to promoting the freshest, most under-recognized artists in the Washington metropolitan area. Comprised of a 750 square foot gallery and a 50 seat black box theater, DCAC has been in the heart of Adams Morgan since its founding in 1989. Its dynamic and eclectic visual arts exhibitions and performance events has received local, national and international reviews. We encourage an ongoing dialogue between new artists and the greater arts community and assist artists in both the business and craft of art. Poets, painters, actors, storytellers, sculptors, and performance artists from around the corner and around the worldaredrawn to DCAC and it remains a mainstay of the Washington, DC arts community.
