

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

"The New Breed"

Sept 9- Oct 9, 2005

New Work from Team Lump from Raleigh, N.C.

Opening: Friday, September 9th from 7-9 PM

Old trees, girls with slight mustaches, malformed animals, hippies, trash, a slew of faces, pretty things and tinfoil robots are just some of the topics covered by these Team Lump artists. Paintings, drawings, sculpture, and probably other suprizes will be made by the likes of Justin Crosby, Stewart Sineath, Gary Smith, Tory Wright, Bob Schatte, Josh Rickards, Jeremy Taylor and Allyson Mellberg.

The District of Columbia Arts Center is a nonprofit arts space dedicated to promoting the freshest, most under-recognized artists in the Washington metropolitan area. Comprised of a 750 square foot gallery and a 50 seat black box theater, DCAC has been in the heart of Adams Morgan since its founding in 1989. Its dynamic and eclectic visual arts exhibitions and performance events has received local, national and international reviews. We encourage an ongoing dialogue between new artists and the greater arts community and assist artists in both the business and craft of art. Poets, painters, actors, storytellers, sculptors, and performance artists from around the corner and around the world are drawn to DCAC and it remains a mainstay of the Washington, DC arts community.
