

Good Enough For Government Work

Saturday, June 20 at 10:00pm

$3, $1 DCAC Members

For Reservations: Call DCAC at 202-462-7833

A simple good deed for a customer at a local funeral home opened the doors for him to the federal workforce. Joey's show chronicles his life from being born a "Beltway Baby," to a naive college intern, to an experienced mid-level management position. Thanks to the boredom of living out the suburbanite family dream while managing to deal with the ups and downs of daily life as a federal worker, a birthday wish for an exciting life gives him much more than he bargained for.

After landing an opportunity of a lifetime director's position - a break that was intended for his boss's mistress, Joey must do everything he can to survive his probationary period. Through Joey's stage presence and charisma, his story unfolds into an epic "good versus evil" battle that will keep audiences mesmerized until the very end.