

Helicopters and Vultures

June 19 at 10pm

$6 / $5 DCAC Members

For Reservations: Call DCAC at 202-462-7833

Performance poet Henry Mills appears in Helicopters and Vultures, an exploration of what it means to be a product of refugees, a survivor of their history and the fallout of the 20th century. Mills bares witness to the human struggle in an age of deportations and police raids; the children of war; hyphenated identity and undocumented love through a mix of poetry, hip-hop, Latin-American folk and jazz with a live score by DJ Fleg.