Comedian Chris White (Last Comic Standing, XM Radio, HBO Comedy Festival) combines trivia, videos, stand-up and a grand-finale in one of the most eclectic, original and entertaining shows you'll ever see. Since 2006, he's been taking "requests" from friends, family and strangers -- any subject they wanted to hear jokes about. Sometimes it's easy (cars, hair), sometimes it's almost impossible (quadratic equations, Newton's third law) and once it was Phil Collins. But now they're all rolled into 90 minutes of awesome, for just $10.
