

Landless Theatre Company presents:
China: The Whole Enchilada

April 24, 7:30 PM

Three white men sing, dance, and irreverently march their way through four thousand years of Chinese history, daring to tackle racism, human rights, genocide, and the birth of the fortune cookie. This production will reunite the team of Landless' Gutenberg! The Musical!, directed by John Sadowski. Written by Mark Brown. Music arrangements by Paul Mirkovitch.

Winner of the 2008 New York Fringe Outstanding Musical!
