

Cult of the Stage Monkey presents:
MICROCOSM

June 16 at 7:30 PM
June 17 at 10 pm
$12/$10 for DCAC Members

MicroCOSM performs improvised theater based on audience suggestion. These pieces are performed without a script, and constructed on-the-fly from audience suggestion. As such, each performance is a unique, never-before-seen, never-to-be-seen-again piece. As a troupe, MicroCOSM seeks to imitate a slice of life, and to explore the possibilities of a world without restraint.
