The Charlie Visconage show is tonight-- call and book your tickets! The Charlie Visconage show is a live, weekly late-night talk show with artists that will occur every Thursday for the next two months at DCAC. The show features interviews and performances by musicians, painters, dancers, poets, film makers, writers, and actors from the classical to the cutting edge. The show aims to connect new audiences to DC's thriving art scene with laugh-out-loud nights of interactive entertainment. Tonight's featured guests are Jon Gann, Festival Director of DC Shorts Film Festival; SM Shrake, Leader of Story League; and a musical performance by Paperhaus. For reservations call 202 462 7833.
