Journeys

The Unknown, Acrylic on Canvas, 36" x 36"

Shanthi Chandrasekar's invites us into a spiritual journey from the microcosm to the macrocosm through her interdisciplinary visual representations.

Curated by JW MAHONEY

DC Arts Center presents Journeys, a solo show of Washington D.C. artist Shanthi Chandrasekar. Her work is addressed to her inner sense of truth, which may best be defined in Her own term for the work in this show -- Journeys, meaning a flow, a narrative, and/or an evolution. Her visual images whether representational or abstract, imply the presence of a truth behind them. That truth may be entirely personal, or universally obvious, but it's expressed as a visual image.

Shanthi Chandrasekar is a Washington, D.C. based artist who uses drawing, sculpture, painting, drawing, collage, sculpture, printmaking, photography, fiber art, sound and video art. These journeys are visual, at first, following a line, or the character of a concentric form, or registering the relationships between images carrying a somehow symbolic character. Where are they going, and what do they mean? Using symbols, she is trying to understand concepts that are simple yet profound.

Journeys will be on exhibit from January 11 – February 10, 2013. The opening reception will take place on Friday, January 11, 2013 from 7 to 9 pm.

DC Arts Center is located in the heart of Adams Morgan at 2438 18th St. NW. Gallery hours are Wednesdays through Sundays from 2 to 7 PM. For more information and photos call 202-462-7833 or visit our website at www.dcartscenter.org. All events are free and open to the public.
