

THE GIMMICK
April 12 & 13
Friday & Saturday at 7:30 PM
FREE FOR ALL

DC Arts Center to reserve your tickets, 202-462-7833 or email info@dartscenter.org

This piece is about young Alexis finding refuge from the brutal reality of the streets among the library bookshelves, where she dreams of becoming an American writer in Paris like James Baldwin. I feel the need of telling this electrifying story to the community because sometimes we allow our surrounding defeat our big dreams. I am most thrilled to present this piece to the community because many lives will be beautifully impacted.