

PRESS PLAY HUMP DAYS: COMEDY TURDUCKEN NIGHT

November 18
Wednesday at 7:30 pm

Pre-sale: $10 General/ $8 DCAC Members

Door: $12 General/$10 DCAC Members

*No refunds on advance ticket sales

Press Play hosts and produces a monthly show featuring some of the best comedy, music, and storytelling acts in the area!

This month, Press Play is getting into the holiday spirit with our Comedy Turducken Night. It's improv, stuffed into music, stuffed into stand-up, stuffed into imprpov! And unlike the poultry turducken, it's safe for vegetarians. And we hope it will be way funnier though a turducken is pretty funny already, in a sick way.

Members of the DC Arts Center get $2 off each ticket. All audience members get $200 off a workplace improv workshop from Mindhatch (www.mindhatchllc.com)!

We'll have real performances from some funny and talented people:

- * Stand-up from Charles Lipper
- * Improv from Middle Child Improv Troupe
- * Music from AZTEC SUN
- * Improv from Mighty Mighty School Project
- * And more make-em-ups from your hosts, Press Play

Press Play was founded in 2010 and, not to brag or anything, has yet to have a show with a fart joke. Seriously. That's how committed Press Play is to the craft of longform improv. The group performs in festivals around the country, theaters around DC, and once at a birthday party.

Tickets: <http://pressplaydcac.bpt.me/>