

BAD MEDICINE SKETCH SHOW

June 19 and July 25

Saturdays at 10 pm

$10 General/ $8 for Members

Bad Medicine is a DC-based sketch comedy group specializing in the dark, the cerebral, and the absurd. Though it has humble beginnings--conceived over a plate of tater tots and a few warm beers--Bad Medicine has quickly grown into one of the most eclectic sketch groups in the District and features a cast and crew trained by Second City, the Upright Citizen's Brigade, Washington Improv Theater, The DC Improv, and DoJo Comedy. They are a group of singers, designers, lawyers, and students with the shared goal of writing the best sketch comedy about the worst of humanity. So please join Bad Medicine for the second ever Bad Medicine Show!

No side effects. No horse pills. Just comedy.

Featuring:

Stand up from Baltimore comedian Mike Moran

A character piece from DC improviser Kate Symes
