Michael Burgos (one-man play) - Michael Burgos is an internationally acclaimed writer and performer. He holds a Diplôme from École Philippe Gaulier (Paris, France) and a B.A. in Theater from George Mason University, where he received the Chris Parsons Acting Award, the Greenspring Players Scholarship, and the Outstanding Achievement in the Major Award. In addition to studying with theater guru Philippe Gaulier, Michael trained with master teacher Dody DiSanto, a teaching protégé of the late Jacques Lecoq. Michael is a graduate of Washington Improv Theater's Training Program and has studied at the Upright Citizens Brigade Theatre in New York. While at George Mason University, he was one of the founding members of the university's improv troupe, the Mason Improv Association. He has taught theater with Acting for Young People since 2010 and has written and directed over twenty short plays for children. Michael also holds a B.M. from Berklee College of Music and has toured with Bruce Springsteen & The E Street Band.

Cake Bagel (improv) - Cake Bagel is as whimsical as pink icing and as savory as smoked salmon. Or at least that's what we tell ourselves to justify our pre-show carbo-loading. Formed in 2012, the troupe has logged more than two years' worth of shows around the Washington, D.C. area, including featured appearances at Washington Improv Theater's Seasonal Disorder, Binge, Improvopalooza and Road Show runs. Cake Bagel has also brought its glutenous goodness to the North Carolina Comedy Arts Festival, the Chicago Improv Festival and the Del Close Marathon. Bold, character-driven and super-fun, a Cake Bagel show is like having your cake... and eating a bagel, too.

be E.A.S.Y dance (dance troupe)

Press Play (longform improv) - That's us! One of DC's longestrunning improv teams and frequent festival performers brings the comedic heat! Well, comedic spring breeze. Comedic heat for our summer shows.
