Time to put away the high-calorie chocolates, mixed tapes and lame greeting cards. Steer clear of those once-you've-seen-one-you've-seen-them-all romantic comedies. This February, listen to your heart and its one true desire -- the desire to laugh hysterically. "i heart improv" will fulfill this desire and introduce you to a new passion, longform improv comedy. The commitment is only for one night, but it's a night you'll always remember.
